FIM SuperEnduro World Championship & FIM Junior SuperEnduro World Cup

2022 Calendar, UPDATE 29 December

Israeli round rescheduled in March

Due to the uncertainties and new restrictions related to the ongoing Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, the FIM, the championship promoter ABC Communication, the Israeli Motorcycling Federation (IMSF) and the local promoter have to announce the postponement of the round initially scheduled to take place at Pais Arena in Jerusalem on 20 January.

The event will now take place on 03 March.

About the FIM (www.fim-moto.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 115 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
